

Privacy Policy

The purpose of this Privacy Policy (hereinafter referred as “Policy”) is to inform you as to what information may be collected by Fast Launch (hereinafter referred as “the Company”, “we”, “us”, “our”) from you when you visit our Website (hereinafter referred as “this Website” or “our Website”).

By this Policy we would like to inform you how your information will be used by us, with whom such information may be shared, your choices regarding the collection, use, and distribution of such information, your ability to edit, update, correct, or delete such information and the security procedures that we have implemented to protect your privacy.

We take all necessary efforts to ensure that our processing of your personal data meets the standards of EU General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016.

If you do not agree to all the terms and conditions of this Policy, please do not use our Website.

Legal basis for processing personal information

The legal basis for the collection and utilization of the personal information will vary based on the specific details and circumstances under which we gather it.

Our typical practice is to acquire personal information from you solely under the following circumstances: (i) when it is necessary to meet our contractual responsibilities towards you, (ii) when the processing aligns with our legitimate interests and does not supersede your rights, or (iii) when we have obtained your consent. Additionally, there may be instances where we have a legal obligation to gather personal information from you or where it becomes essential to safeguard your vital interests or the well-being of another individual.

In situations where we require your personal information to adhere to a legal obligation or fulfill a contractual agreement, we will explicitly communicate this to you at the appropriate moment. We will inform you whether providing your personal information is obligatory or optional (as well as the potential repercussions if you choose not to provide your personal information).

When we gather and utilize your personal information based on our legitimate interests or those of a third party, our primary objective is to operate our platform and engage in necessary communication to deliver our services to you. Additionally, we may have a legitimate commercial interest, such as addressing your inquiries, enhancing our platform, conducting marketing activities, or ensuring the detection and prevention of unlawful activities. In case we have additional legitimate interests, we will transparently inform you at the relevant moment about what those interests entail.

If you have questions about or need further information concerning the legal basis on which we collect and use your personal information, please contact us by sending an email to info@fastlaunch.pro.

Cookies files

A cookie is a small file which asks permission to be placed on your computer's hard drive. Once you agree, the file is added and the cookie helps analyze web traffic or lets you know when you visit a particular site.

Most web browsers are set to accept cookies as a default. You may wish to opt out by turning off cookies (please refer to the help menu on your browser), however, please, note, that if you do so, you may not be able to use the full functionalities of this website.

Third-Party Links

The Website may contain links to web sites operated and maintained by third parties over which we have no control. Any information you provide to third party websites will be governed under the terms of each website's privacy policy and we encourage you to investigate and ask questions before disclosing any information to the operators of third-party websites. We bear no responsibility or liability whatsoever for the content, actions, or policies of third party websites. The inclusion of third-party websites on our Website in no way constitutes an endorsement of such websites' content, actions, or policies. Please, check third-party's policies before you submit any personal data to these websites.

GDPR CLAUSE

In operating this Website, we process data as a controller (as such terms are defined in the GDPR). As a controller, Website is committed to fulfill data subjects' ("users") GDPR rights.

If you are EU resident, you may:

- access the data that Website keeps about you. We may need to ask you to provide us certain credentials to make sure that you are who you claim you are. If you find that the data is not accurate, complete or updated, then you may provide us with the necessary information to rectify it.
- contact us if you want to withdraw your consent to the processing of your personal information. Exercising this right will not affect the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal.
- request to delete or restrict access to your personal information. We may postpone or deny your request if your personal information is in current use for providing the services or due to other legitimate purposes, such as compliance with regulatory requirements associated with Website.

If you exercise one (or more) of the above-mentioned rights, in accordance with the provisions of applicable law, you may request to be informed that third parties that hold your personal information, in accordance with this Privacy Policy, will act accordingly.

- you may ask to transfer your personal information in accordance with your right to data portability.

- you may object to the processing of your personal information for direct marketing purposes.
- you have the right not to be subject to a decision based solely on automated processing, including profiling, which produces legal effects concerning you or similarly significantly affecting you.
- you have a right to lodge a complaint with a data protection supervisory authority.

If you have any concerns about the way we process your personal information, you are welcome to contact to the Website by email.

The Website will look into your enquiry and make required efforts to resolve your case.

The Website is committed to assist its controllers as to data subjects' rights under the General Data Protection Regulation (Regulation (EU) 2016/679) (GDPR).

We conduct periodical assessments of its data processing and privacy practices to ensure that it complies with this Policy, update the Policy when necessary, and ensure that the policy is properly displayed and accessible.

We use all reasonable measures to verify the identity of a data subject who requests access or to delete information about them to verify that the request is from the customer to prevent fraudulent and cyber-crimes. For these reasons we can ask you to provide us some identification documents such as passport, ID card, e-mail address, phone number, etc. In addition, we also may request the provision of additional information necessary to confirm the identity of the data subject.

Protection of minors

Persons under 18 years are excluded from our services and from providing any personal information without the consent of their parents or guardians. We do not request personal information from children and adolescents. We do not knowingly gather or collect such data and do not disclose it to third parties. If, however, we become aware that personal data regarding a child under the age of 18 has been collected on the Website we will make reasonable efforts to delete it from our records immediately.

Modifications to Policy

This Policy may be amended from time to time. We reserve the right to change this Privacy Policy at any time. Any changes to this Policy will be effective immediately upon posting the latest version on our Website. We will inform you by e-mail about changes, which may be related to purposes of personal data processing, storage terms, personal data receipts and any other essential changes to this Policy. If you disagree with the changes in our Policy, please do not use the Website after the posting of such changes online and ask us to terminate the processing of your personal data. By using the Website following the posting of changes to this Policy, you agree to all such changes.

Questions or comments or how to contact us
